PEACE ESTABLISHMENTS.—PART II.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

A.—HEADQUARTERS.

The detail of the additional personnel required on mobilization is shown on pages 6 and 7.

With the exception of the numbers to be found from the Yeomanry and A.S.C. the numbers required have been added to the peace establishment of certain units selected by G.Os.C.-in-C. They will be administered in all respects by those units and will, as a rule, only join the Headquarters when the Division or Mounted Brigade trains as a whole.

The selected R.A., R.E., and Infantry units are shown under their own area and the numbers to be found are shown in special columns.

As regards the Yeomanry and A.S.C., the numbers so required are included in the establishment of their Regiment or T. and S. Column.

The names of officers holding appointments mentioned on pages 4 and 5 will be shown in the Army List.

Any alteration of the names of such officers should be notified to the War Office as soon as possible for correction in the Army List.

TRAINING.

The units to train the additional personnel of Artillery, Engineers, and Infantry will be selected by the divisional commander.

The A.S.C. drivers will be trained as follows:—

For the Headquarters Division, Divisional Artillery and Divisional Engineers.—By the Headquarters company of the Divisional Transport and Supply Column.

For the Headquarters, Mounted Brigade.—By the Mounted Brigade T. and S. Column.

For the Headquarters, Infantry Brigade.—By the company from which they are detached on mobilization.

B.—HORSES AND VEHICLES ALLOWED FOR TRAINING.

When the number of men attending camp falls below the full establishment, the allowance of horses and vehicles allowed for training will be reduced proportionately.

(a) The adjutant and acting serjeant-major (shown under P.S.) form part of the normal establishment of the unit, but are not included in these totals.

(b) Does duty as armament artificer.

(c) Provides 2 signallers, 2 range takers, 2 orderlies, and 3 horse-holders.

(d) Two men (one an acting bombardier) trained to the duties, are placed under the orders of the medical officer. The gunner drives the cart for medical equipment.

(e) Fully trained and armed men, and are available for duty in the ranks.

(f) Two medical officers are included in the establishment to ensure one being present at training. One only will train with the unit in any year. On mobilization only one will be called up with the unit.

NOTE.—For rank of artificers see Table on pages 38 and 39.

* May be serjeant or corporal, according to service. If a corporal the total serjeants will be reduced, and the "corporals" increased accordingly.

(a) These are gunners acting as drivers.
(b) For observation party.
(c) The adjutant's horse is provided throughout the year, and is therefore not included in above totals.
(d) 3 bombardiers and 2 gunners trained in signalling for communications.
(e) Does duty as armament artificer.
(f) Fully armed and trained men, and are available for duty in the ranks.
(g) The adjutant and acting serjeant-major (shown under P.S.) form part of the normal establishment of the unit, but are not included in these totals.
(h) Provides for 2 signallers, 2 range takers, 2 orderlies, and 3 horse-holders.
(i) Includes 1 corporal.
(j) 2 medical officers are included in the establishment to ensure one being present at training. One only will train with the unit in any year. On mobilization only one will be called up with the unit.

NOTE.—The heavy artillery of the East and West Lancashire Divisions and of the 1st and 2nd London Divisions will have 1 lieut.-colonel, 1 adjutant, 1 veterinary officer, and 1 acting serjeant-major, to the two batteries and ammunition columns, as a temporary measure.

(e) Includes one permanent staff serjeant-instructor A.S.C. for technical medical transport duties.

(f) Only those numbers are included which refer to officers and other ranks of the Territorial Force who are paid and trained as such.

(g) The adjutant's horse is provided throughout the year, and is therefore not shown here.

(h) For the serjeant-instructor, A.S.C.

(i) These horses are allowed for not more than 15 days during annual training in camp.
